FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where can I go to find transportation?

Medical transportation services are available through the Ocean County Department of Transportation, and the Ocean County Board of Social Services (Medicaid only). Medical transportation services require advanced notice and each agency has different requirements. Volunteer transportation services are also available to eligible individuals through Caregivers of Central Ocean County, while transportation for eligible individuals for employment purposes is available through the Disability Employment Transportation Service (DETS). New Jersey Transit offers transportation services in Ocean County with a Reduced Fair Program. Applications for the Reduced Fair Program can be accessed through New Jersey Transit Office of Special Services.

Who do I contact if I have a problem with discrimination?

The Americans with Disabilities Act Hotline can help with issues concerning public and private accessibility. The Fair Housing Act has an office that can assist in matters regarding housing discrimination. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission provides information regarding discrimination in the workplace. Contact ADA Hotline 800-514-0301.

Where can I find housing and other housing related assistance?

The Ocean County Housing Resource Guide can be obtained through the Ocean County Department of Human Services, Office of Senior Services as well as the Board of Social Services. This document is designed to assist with a variety of housing options. The Ocean County Board of Social Services offers rental assistance to those who are eligible however, rental assistance resources are limited. If an individual is in an extreme situation resulting in homelessness, the Ocean County Board of Social Services offers Special Response services to those who qualify.

What is Social Security Disability (SSD) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI)?

SSD can be received at any age if an individual has worked long enough and has a severe impairment that prevents or delays future employment or if a medical condition is terminal. SSI is for individuals 65 or older or disabled who are financially needy.
