INTRODUCTION

RESOURCE GUIDE OVERVIEW

This guide outlines programs and services that may be of interest to individuals living with a disability and is based on frequently requested resources. This guide does not endorse or evaluate resources listed and is intended to provide information that will help individuals consider which resources best fit their needs. Please utilize this guide as an informational resource, however, if you need additional information contact the Office. This guide highlights a small portion of the information that the Office has available to the public. If there are additional services that should be listed in this guide please contact the Office for Individuals with Disabilities at 732-506-5374.

OFFICE FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES OVERVIEW

The Office works as an information, advocacy, and referral resource for the residents of Ocean County. Resource information, both public and private, is made available to empower our communities through access to available information and services. All duties of the Office are aimed at improving the quality of life for all residents of Ocean County. The Ocean County Commission for Individuals with Disabilities, the advisory board of the Office, addresses the needs and concerns of individuals with disabilities through education and awareness activities such as informational publications and awareness workshops.

INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES WEEKLY EMAIL

The Office sends out a weekly email regarding disability news, information and events that are happening in and around Ocean County. To be added to the weekly email list please contact us at 732-506-5374 or via email to Michael Blatt, Coordinator, at mblatt@co.ocean.nj.us or Suellen Semevolos, Administrative Clerk Typist, at ssemevolos@co.ocean.nj.us.

Where can I go to find transportation?

Medical transportation services are available through the Ocean County Department of Transportation, and the Ocean County Board of Social Services (Medicaid only). Medical transportation services require advanced notice and each agency has different requirements. Volunteer transportation services are also available to eligible individuals through Caregivers of Central Ocean County, while transportation for eligible individuals for employment purposes is available through the Disability Employment Transportation Service (DETS). New Jersey Transit offers transportation services in Ocean County with a Reduced Fair Program. Applications for the Reduced Fair Program can be accessed through New Jersey Transit Office of Special Services.

Who do I contact if I have a problem with discrimination?

The Americans with Disabilities Act Hotline can help with issues concerning public and private accessibility. The Fair Housing Act has an office that can assist in matters regarding housing discrimination. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission provides information regarding discrimination in the workplace.

Where can I find housing and other housing related assistance?

The Ocean County Housing Resource Guide can be obtained through the Ocean County Department of Human Services, Office of Senior Services as well as the Board of Social Services. This document is designed to assist with a variety of housing options. The Ocean County Board of Social Services offers rental assistance to those who are eligible however, rental assistance resources are limited. If an individual is in an extreme situation resulting in homelessness, the Ocean County Board of Social Services offers Special Response services to those who qualify.

What is Social Security Disability (SSD) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI)?

SSD can be received at any age if an individual has worked long enough and has a severe impairment that prevents or delays future employment or if a medical condition is terminal. SSI is for individuals 65 or older or disabled who are financially needy.
